SWINK STYLE BAR

611 Stewart Street
Seattle, WA 98101
www.swinkstylebar.com

Let this swanky new salon style your tresses for any special occasion. No scissors necessary.

What can you do in 30 minutes and for only $30 that will make you look good from day until night? Stop by Swink Style Bar on Stewart Street between Sixth and Seventh to find out. Your hair will thank you.

Jacque Bryne and Natalie Angelillo, the stylish duo behind Swink, are living the hustle and bustle work life, so they understand better than anyone how stressful it can be to present yourself at work, an event, an interview, a business meeting or a date, when your hair has decided to take on a life of its own. In cities such as London and New York, it has become commonplace to find salons dedicated to just doing blowouts. What is a blowout, exactly? It's not a hair cut. It's that perfect salon style you can never recreate at home, and it can last from one day to the next without falling flat.

Natalie explained that she and Jacque wanted a place that would enhance every woman. That's how the motto of "You, only better!" became the driving theme of Swink Style Bar. The menu of eight styles with such names as, "The Knock Out," "The Fifth Avenue" and their signature blowout, "The Swink," are available and made to work for short hair or long hair, thick or thin. The professional staff at the style bar has an array of experiences, and each stylist knows how to bring out the best in you in only 30 minutes. The team at Swink Style Bar knows that being a woman can be fun, especially with great hair. In fact, they've expanded into eyelash extensions and make-up application fashioning them as your one-stop beauty spot. So walk, run, call and book your appointment today to find "you, only better!"
